NEWS:

IOM TRAINING ON PROVISION OF MENTAL HEALTH AND PSYCHOSOCIAL SUPPORT IN EMERGENCIES

From 2 to 5 August 2022 in Bratislava, IOM conducted a training for its partner organization IPčko on how to provide community-based mental health and psychosocial support (MHPSS) to people in emergency situation that fled the war in Ukraine. The participants also learned how to avoid, how to recognize and how to report sexual abuse and exploitation.

IOM trained the first group of 14 psychologists and social workers who will start to provide MHPSS to people from Ukraine in August 2022. Their assistance will gradually cover all regions of Slovakia.

On the last day of the training, the professionals learned how to use this knowledge in practice. During their field trip to the Gabčíkovo Accommodation Centre, they experienced the environment and conditions of hundreds of people that fled Ukraine and found temporary shelter in Slovakia.

WELCOMING SLOVAKIA FOR PEOPLE FROM UKRAINE ALSO MEANS HOW FIND A SAFE JOB IN SLOVAKIA

On 16 August 2022, IOM Migration Information Centre in cooperation with Bottova Assistance Centre in Bratislava conducted a workshop Welcoming Slovakia for 18 temporary refuge holders from Ukraine.

The participants learnt how to look for a job in a safe way using web portals, how to interact with work agencies, how to identify the "red flags" that could indicate risky job advertisements, what basics of Slovak labor law and types of employment contracts are, as well as what their rights as employees in Slovakia are.

THE PARTICIPANTS IN BRATISLAVA ALSO APPRECIATED INFORMATION ABOUT FREE COUNSELLING AND SERVICES OF THE IOM MIC THEY COULD BENEFIT FROM.

Similarly to Bratislava, but in an online format, IOM in cooperation with a community centre Trenčín pomáha Ukrajine (Trenčín helps Ukraine) held a workshop in Ukrainian language for Ukrainian nationals on 17 August 2022. Altogether 16 participants in the premises of the Cultural Centre Activity in Trenčín benefited from important facts provided online from Bratislava by IOM consultants.

IOM TRAINING: HOW TO RECOGNIZE AND PREVENT SEXUAL ABUSE AND EXPLOITATION

On 27 July 2022, 24 employees of Migration Office of the Ministry of Interior of the Slovak Republic, NGOs Mareena and League for Mental Health and employees of the Gabčíkovo Accommodation Facility attended the IOM training on Prevention of Sexual Exploitation and Abuse (PSEA).

COMMUNITY CENTRE IN NITRA CAN HELP PEOPLE FLEEING WAR IN UKRAINE WITH HYGIENE ITEMS, BABY KITS AND CLOTHES

Community Center for Work and Knowledge Mobility (COMIN) is a centre for foreigners in the Nitra region, daily serving 50 people that fled the war in Ukraine.

The centre helps to take care of children of mostly refugee women who want to find a job or handle administrative issues and need a safe space where they can leave their child for a couple of hours while having a job interview or visiting government institutions.

On 8 August 2022, IOM delivered to their temporary warehouse in the High School of Gastronomy in Nitra 1,000 hygiene kits for women, children and men. Furthermore, IOM also delivered clothing donations: 1,600 slippers. Thanks to IOM donations, the centre can secure daily care of these women, children and other people in need.

DELIVERY OF HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE TO THE COMMUNITY CENTER IN NITRA IN AUGUST 2022.

IOM is continuing to provide humanitarian aid to this center in Nitra. On 16 August 2022, IOM delivered 7 pallets with clothing that were unloaded with help of employees of the City of Nitra and Ukrainian volunteers at the temporary warehouse residing in the High School of Gastronomy in Nitra.

IOM PROVIDED OVER 4,000 HYGIENE KITS FROM IOM WAREHOUSE IN KOSICE TO HELP PEOPLE FROM UKRAINE IN VARIOUS TOWNS IN SLOVAKIA

Over the last few weeks, IOM Slovakia provided hygiene kits for people in need from Ukraine in need and delivered them to assistance centres in Michalovce, Zakovce, Nitra and Bratislava in partnership with the Association of Christian Youth Communities.

The hygiene kits content is adapted to women's, children's and men's need. Kits generally include bucket, comb, sponges, nail clipper, laundry detergent, laundry line, toothpastes, toothbrushes, towels, mug, jug, razors, sanitary pads, shampoo, shaving cream, soaps and dishwashing liquid.

1,135 kits were delivered to the large-scale registration centre in Michalovce where people in need are searching for assistance and temporary refuge after crossing the borders to Slovakia.

Organization Caritas – Spišská katolícka Charita received another batch of 1,000 kits for their spots of humanitarian assistance. The kits are further distributed to another 5 spots in Poprad, Kežmarok, Svit Ružomberok and Dolný Kubín.

Another 1,000 kits were provided as humanitarian assistance in the town of Nitra (see article at p. 2), 500 kits to Bottova Assistance Centre in Bratislava and 500 kits to the humanitarian distribution centre in Aupark Shopping Mall in Bratislava.

IOM CONTINUES DELIVERING HUMANITARIAN ASSISTANCE FOR PEOPLE FROM UKRAINE IN MARTIN

On 29 July and 9 August 2022, IOM in coordination with the District Office in the town Martin donated another two batches of humanitarian aid to the Community Centre Martin for Ukrainian Refugees to secure their basic needs in personal hygiene and clothing, as well as equip them with basic kitchen tools and cleaning supplies.

The Community Centre provides assistance to war-affected people that found temporary refuge in the town Martin located in the central-north of Slovakia. The aid from IOM is being distributed in the heart of the town where the Community Centre and its clothing distribution facility operate. Some of the aid has been allocated also for the daily needs of refugees living in the Accommodation Facility.

IOM handed over to the centre 3,245 pieces of clothes, 3,800 pieces of hygiene items, 1,090 pieces of kitchen items and 1,675 pieces of cleaning items.

IOM RESPONDED TO THE URGENT NEEDS OF PEOPLE FROM UKRAINE THAT FOUND TEMPORARY REFUGE IN MARTIN AND PROVIDED THERE VITAL HUMANITARIAN AID.

IOM HANDED OVER THE SECOND BATCH OF HUMANITARIAN FOOD ASSISTANCE TO A KOSICE HOTSPOT FOR PEOPLE FROM UKRAINE

Since the very first days of the war in Ukraine, thousands of people arriving in Kosice have found temporary shelter, advice and first relief at the hotspot in the Kosice bus station, coordinated by the City of Kosice. IOM followed up on its previous delivery of humanitarian food assistance in July 2022 and the following month donated the second batch of non-perishable food items, water, tea, coffee, milk and hygienic supplies, in total of 16 pallets of items. Both shipments cover the hotspot needs for 4 weeks consumption.
